OFFICE 563-8102

GOREN BRIDGEBY CHARLES H. GOREN AND OMAR SHARIF
© 1976, The Chicago TribunePartner opens the bidding with one spade. What do you respond?Q.1—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♦J762 ♥KQ32 ♦J7 ♠A104
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass 1 ♥ 1 ♠ Pass
What do you bid now?A.—Three spades. That shows a hand which is worth close to an opening bid, but is not forcing since you are a passed hand.
West's opening bid has somewhat deflated the value of the king-queen of hearts—had your heart and club holdings been reversed, you should have considered raising to game.Q.2—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♦AK852 ♥A6 ♦10963 ♠72
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♥ 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠
Pass ?
What action do you take?A.—Pass. While partner has some values for his raise, he cannot have enough to encourage you to bid on. You do not have much more than a minimum overall, and your hand is unlikely to produce more than five or six tricks. Without a double raise from partner, it is unrealistic to expect him to cover enough of your losers.Q.3—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♦K73 ♥A82 ♦K9 ♠109842
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South
1 ♠ 1 ♥ ?
What do you bid now?A.—This is an awkward hand.
You are too good for a mere raise to two clubs, but not quite strong enough for a jump to either three clubs or two no trump. If there is any game, it is most likely going to be in no trump, so you can describe your 10 points and balanced hand with a free bid or one no trump. That should place partner in a position to evaluate the prospects.Q.4—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♦A6 ♥KQ10962 ♦A83 ♠85
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1 ♥ 1 ♠
Dbble. Pass Pass 2 ♠
Pass Pass 2 ♥ Pass
2 NT Pass ?
What action do you take?A.—It is only a question of which is the better game—three no trump or four hearts. The auction suggests that the heart game might be safer. Everything points to partner having only one stopper in clubs—with a stronger holding in that suit, he would probably have double two clubs rather than pass the auction to you for a decision. So our vote goes to four hearts.Q.5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♦QJ73 ♥7 ♦KQ106 ♠AJ98A.—Two diamonds (or two clubs). Your hand is too strong for a jump raise to three spades, which should be limited to hands of 13-16 points. Your hand revalues to 17 points in support of spades, and you should plan to bid both of your minor suits before jumping in spades in order to pinpoint your shortness in hearts.Q.6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♦AQ107 ♥KJ987 ♦K6 ♠92
The bidding has proceeded:
1 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
What do you bid now?A.—Four spades. Do not bid four hearts—partner will construe that as a slam try. You do not have much more than a minimum opening bid, and if partner has no more than he has promised, slam should be against the odds.Q.7—As South, vulnerable,
you hold:
♦Q10762 ♥865 ♦75 ♠654
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
2 ♥ Pass 2 NT Pass
3 ♥ Pass ?
What action do you take?A.—Bid four hearts. Your hand is not without some redeeming features. You do have three trumps, a doubleton and a queen which might be useful. Since you have already located a satisfactory fit in hearts, there is no point in introducing your weak spade suit. The raise to game does not promise much from you.Q.8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♦KQ873 ♥84 ♦AKQ76 ♠K
The bidding has proceeded:
1 ♠ Pass 2 NT Pass
3 ♥ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
4 ♥ Pass 5 ♠ Pass
What do you bid now?A.—Partner is marked with the two black aces. It is also most likely that he holds the king of hearts, and we would not fault you if you decided to bid the slam—provided you bid it in no trump to protect the king of hearts from the opening lead.
However, our top award goes to a bid of five diamonds, which emphasizes the heart weakness and leaves it up to partner to bid slam if he does indeed have the king of hearts.Your play to the first trick could decide the fate of the contract! A writer once remarked: "There's no such thing as a blind opening lead, only deaf opening leaders!"
