LONDON, Ont. (CP) - Jurg Tanner appeared to have everything going against him before his final game against the United States in the men's world curling championship

He was placed on the injury list last year following a 33-9 lashing in Ed-monton at the hands of the Grey Cup embarrassement to the team, ad-ding: "He says he's hurt, so he's on the injury list." Holt, who has been trying to have his contract renegotiated, wants to leave the Canadian Football Lea-retiring is the worst thing Holt could do if he wants to switch to the Na-

Bob Ackles, club general manager, said he has informed Holt he only would renegotiate his contract if it was extended by another year.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver

Whitecaps continued their youth movement Friday by signing Peter Beardsley, a 20-year-old English League striker, to a three-year contract with the North American Soccer League club.

The five-foot, eight-inch 158pound native of Newcastle leads Carlisle United of the Third Division with 13 goals and will remain with the Cumb as they battle to avoid relegation to bottom of the table and has nine games remaining in its season that concludes May 5.

Beardsley will come here as soon as Carlisle ensures that it will remain in the Third Division. This means he could miss as few as three Whitecap league games and the maximum number he could miss would be seven. The Whitecaps did not reveal the transfer fee but a club spokesman said it is being reported in England as more than $500,000.

Peter Lorimer, the Whitecaps assistant coach who scouted Beardsley last November, described him as club is hoping Beardsley will pay the Earlier, the situation might have been considered gloomy for the 26-year-old Tanner. He took an injection Saturday night to freeze a chronic sore left hip for 48 hours. He wasn't confident, believing that some teams were better than the Lausanne foursome. He won Switzerland's second

Air Canada Silver Broom trophy with a supurb display of curling that kept Somerville and Bob Nichols, who threw last stones for the U.S., offbalanced for most of the game before 5,686 fans in the Thompson Arena. It was the lowest scoring game ever in the 14-year history of the tournament. Tanner, who defeated Canadian skip Kerry Burtnyk 7-4 in semifinal play Saturday by stealing a total of four points, said he didn't have to make any difficult shots in the final. However, his rink of third Jurg Hornisberger, second Patrik Loertscher and lead Franz Tanner — the skip's 53-year-old father — put him in a small hole in the fifth end. The Swiss skip had to make a double takeout in that end, then stayed to count two. Nichols could only draw into the house for one, leaving the Swiss with the 2-1 lead.

In the second end, Nichols rubbed off a guard on an open takeout that gave the Swiss a 1-0 lead. Nichols attempted a double takeout in the fourth, for a longshot chance at three points, but he again rubbed off a guard and Tanner stole another point. Burtnyk's rink from Winnipeg finished first at the conclusion of the round-robin schedule with an 8-1 record. losing the final game to Jan Ullsten of Sweden. An undefeated record would have given Canada an automatic bye into the final, but the setback dropped Burtnyk, third Mark Olson, second Jim Spencer and leaer and lead Ron Kammerlock into a fourteam playoff.

In the other semifinal game, the U.S. defeated Kristian Soerum of Norway 7-4. Norway, which lost to Canadian skip Rick Folk of Saskatoon in last year's final, was second inthe 1981 round-robin standings with a 7-2 record. The U.S. and Swiss both finished at 6-3, but the Americans took third because they
