

Rich, Refined and Always Right

Invest in a fabulous knit. Classic styles and opulent textures make these timeless looks a no-fail choice.

Count on a knit when you want to look really special.

Totally feminine, eternally fashionable, a look to depend on. Left, the dressy knit suit in warm ivory. Richly textured scrollwork adorns the edges of the jacket. Triple ruffles form a flattering collar on the matching blouse. A simple elastic-waist pull-on skirt completes the look to perfection. Three-piece suit. (4-14) $290, by Ingram. His gray pin-stripe suit. Sasson

The traditional argyle sweater gets an update in this trendy two-piece knit ensemble. Intriguing geometric patterns in deepest charcoal gray and ivory add sizzle to the crew neck pullover top. It's teamed with a simple dark charcoal skirt that accents your trim hips. Top, (S-M-L) $152, skirt, $115, Adrienne Vittadini. A polished finish for this look, a warm white cardigan, (S-M-L) $88, by Tanner.

All photographs taken at Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. Hair & Makeup: Linda Nicholson. Props: Canales. Hose: DIM. Bag: Danel. Man's shirt and tie: Christian Dior. Chemises: Eschborn. Shown available at major department stores nationwide.