ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST

by Sydney Omarr

Friday, July 27, 1984

Since You Asked Me: Sir Laurence Olivier is classic Gemini -- versatile, a natural mimic, a superb actor, an individual who rises to challenge of playing many roles and never satisfied to rest on laurels. Gemini is the most talked-about sign, the natives usually are restless and they never tire of asking questions. Gemini persons can be exasperating, charming, ready to laugh at a moment's notice. Many under this sign are ambidextrous and can fall in and out of love with relative ease. Other Gemini include Susan Strasberg and Marvin Hamlisch.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): What appeared to be a "lost cause" will be revived. You'll have reason to be optimistic -- you'll be more secure, popular, and you will discover that property is worth more than originally anticipated. Gemini plays key role.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Study Aries message for valuable hint. What seemed closed or prohibited will now be open -- you'll have more room, travel and vacation opportunities will multiply. Genuine bargains are available in connection with wearing apparel.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Stress "written word" -- get ideas on paper, submit format or manuscript. Emphasis on payments, collections, added knowledge concerning interest rates and savings program. Virgo, Sagittarius and another Gemini figure prominently.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): You'll get more money, successful domestic adjustment will take place. Emphasis on appeals, appearances, charisma, judgment and correct timing. Romance is part of scenario, and harmony can be restored to home front.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Many benefits occur as result of mediation. Be quiet within, strive to perceive spiritual values. Focus also on institutions, hospital visits, care for one who is temporarily incapacitated.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You get almost anything you want -- lunar, numerical cycles highlight love, money, health. Wish comes true, powers of persuasion are heightened. You'll have more responsibility, relationship intensifies, you'll have chance to promote your interests.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Finish rather than initiate project. Long-standing assignment can be completed, you'll be rid of burden, your prestige will rise, and you could become more financially secure. Superior offers special commendation. Aries figures in scenario.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): You'll get new deal! Freedom replaces restriction. Focus on romance, pioneering spirit, travel, education and philosophy. You'll get to heart of matters, you'll gain more independence and you'll take charge of your own destiny.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Dig deep, realize hidden resources are at stake and you could profit as result of thorough investigation. You'll regain sense of direction, purpose. Intuition is on target, you'll learn by teaching and family relationship will improve.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Forces tend to scatter -- emphasis on contracts, legal affairs, rights and permissions, publicity and marital status. Long-distance call could be related to vacation, holiday travel. Gemini, Sagittarius natives figure in exciting scenario.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Check medical-dental appointments. Accent on practical affairs, including employment and health. Individual you aided in past is back on scene, may ask for more help and will definitely "turn on the charm."

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Focus on romance, writing, publishing, travel, teaching and pursuit of creative hobbies, including photography. Accent also on children, variety, physical attraction, ability to discern "hidden motives."

IF JULY 27 IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are better at helping others than when it comes to aiding your own cause. You are sentimental, idealistic, romantic and a natural humanitarian. You possess sense of drama, you can present ideas in graphic manner. People are drawn to you, are fascinated by your views and your unique way of expressing yourself. Aries, Libra persons play important roles in your life. Contacts, new starts made last year will now bear fruit. If single, marriage is indicated. If married, there could be an addition to family.

Opening lead: Jack of ♣.

We have tried to impress on our readers the importance of counting their tricks. Often you need no more than a simple exercise in arithmetic to point the way to the winning line.

South had a difficult hand to bid because of the fact he was void in his partner's suit. We think he had just enough to jump shift, and thereafter North-South conducted an intelligent auction to reach their best game.

West led the jack of hearts, and declarer wasted no time in going down. He won the queen of hearts and tried to drop the queen of clubs. When that didn't happen, he conceded a club trick to the lady. Back came a heart and, since declarer had no entry to the table, dummy's high diamonds withered on the vine.

Because of the double, declarer should have taken into consideration the possibility the queen of clubs would not drop. Had he stopped to count his tricks, he would have realized that only eight tricks were available. There were plenty of tricks in dummy if he could get there, and could have used the threat of an entry to the table to his advantage.

At trick two declarer should lead the queen of spades. If a defender wins this trick, declarer can force an entry to dummy before the defenders have set up their hearts. So best defense is for West to allow the queen to win.

But now declarer is a trick ahead of the game. He does not need dummy any more. To preserve entries to his hand, declarer should immediately lead the jack of clubs, conceding a trick to the queen. East wins, but declarer now has enough tricks for his contract.

It did not take much to spot the winning line. Those of you who count on your fingers would have had one to spare.
