Baseball rhetoric resumes Associated Press NEW YORK — Last fall, when negotiators for major league baseball owners and players began work on a

The latest move from the owners came Monday, when their chief negotiator, Lee MacPhail, proposed a plan that would limit salaries for free agents and other players who move from team to team by imposing a modified version of the National Basketball Association's salary cap plan.

That brought to the front another issue free agency. The talks were expected to centre on apportioning the multi-million dollars obtained from a television contract with that took effect last season, but owners' financial problems have dominated negotiations.

MacPhail called the new plan a move "to put baseball back somewhere in a break-even position."

Fehr said: "It's a step backward of the most enormous magnitude because it would do away with free agency in baseball."

STRIKE TALK HEATS UP

The electricity failed in the Seattle Kingdome but that didn't stop Ron Guidry from sizzling

The New York pitcher tossed three-hit ball for eight innings and struck out six to lead the Yankees to an 11-1 victory over the Seattle Mariners in an American League baseball game delayed for 23 minutes when a bank of lights in left field went dead.

Guidry, 4-3, retired the first nine Seattle batters. The only run the Mariners scored came in the fourth when the power problem developed. After the delay, the Yankee southpaw walked Jack Perconte and yielded a single to Phil Bradley.

Pitcher back, another out?

by Canadian Press

The revolving door leading to the pitching mound at Three Rivers Stadium had hardly stopped swinging with the return of Rick Reuschel when John Candelaria started to plan his exit.

The veteran Reuschel, just recalled from the minors, and Candelaria combined for a five-hitter as the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Houston Astros 3-2 in a National League baseball game Tuesday night.

Reuschel celebrated his return to the majors by checking Houston on one run and three hits in 7³/₃ innings in his first major-league start since Aug. 10.

"I'm just glad to be here," said Reuschel, who has battled through four years of shoulder problems. "It's a pleasure to go out there and be able to throw without pain, to do the things that I can do."

Candelaria, who surrendered a run in the ninth before notching his sixth save, was of a different mind. "It's time to move on," he said in requesting he be traded. Reuschel retired 15 of the first 16 Houston batters but fell four outs short of what would have been only his second complete game since 1981. Candelaria relieved him with two out in the eighth.

Told of yet another request by Candelaria to be traded, Pirates' manager Chuck Tanner said he would not get rid of the temperamental pitcher unless he received adequate compensation.

Reuschel, 36, a right-hander who has spent 12 years in the major leagues, was 6-2 with a league-best 2.50 earned-run average with Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League before joining the Pirates. He struck out two and walked two. In other games Tuesday, it was the Cincin-

Labatt's on top

Labatt's Pastry Chef took over first place in the North Central Senior Soccer League Tuesday with a 2-0 win over Team X.

Alfonso Miranda converted a cross from the right side in the 15th minute to give Labatt's an early lead and Graham West fired in a hard shot from just inside the 18-yard-line to finish the scoring in the 35th minute.

Randy Quinn of Team X had two good chances to put the ball past goaltender Sergio Beccera of Labatt's, but the winners' defence was too tight and they preserved their shutout.

Soccer year starts

The Prince George women's soccer league began Tuesday at Connaught Field, with all four teams playing their first games.

In initial games, the Strikers beat the Spruce Caps 4-2 and Cariboo Chrome downed the Selects 5-1.

The league's scheduled runs until July 2, with each team playing the others four times. The league has a tournament tentatively scheduled for mid-summer.

The next games are played Thursday at Connaught, with the Spruce Caps playing Cariboo Chrome at 6 and the Strikers meeting the Selects at 7:30.

League spokesman Jackie Collins said the league still needs a few players and a coach for one of its teams.

For more information, call Collins at 962-9812.

Blind bowlers triumph

A Prince George blind bowling team has won the Western Canadian championship for the second straight year.

Harold Aitchison, Lorne Aitchison, Johnny Flatt, Duncan Corliss and Melvin Rollison combined to win the Martin Trophy at the western finals in Regina in April.

Aitchison says the results were mailed out following the tournament and he received them only Tuesday.

The fivesome bowled 2,614 for three games to take the title.

Aitchison says he and several other blind golfers are looking for coaches to help prepare for the blind golf championship in August. Anyone interetested can call him at 562-4883.

Blackburn eases to win

Blackburn ran up an 18-0 first-half lead and coasted to a 24-10 victory over Lakewood Tuesday in Prince George high school rugby. Carter Isenor led Blackburn with 14 points, with Shawn Tyacke and Trevor Matters each adding four.

Greg Parnell and Mantag Hothi had four each for Lakewood.

The next game is Tuesday, when College Heights plays Blackburn at 4 p.m.

San Diego's game in New York was rained out, the first National League rainout of the season and second such postponement in the major leagues in as many nights. The game was rescheduled for Aug. 23 as part of a twinight doubleheader.

Expos 6 Dodgers 1

Tim Wallach hit a sacrifice fly and a two-run homer and Hubie Brooks had three hits as Montreal hammered Los Angeles. Bill Gullickson, 5-4, scattered five hits over 61-3 innings, and helped his cause with two hits, including a two-run double. Jeff Reardon finished for his ninth save. The third-place Expos trail the leading Mets by 21/2 games in the NL East.

Reds 5 Cubs 2

Dave Parker's tie-breaking double keyed a three-run eighth inning as Cincinnati dumped Chicago. Parker, whose double extended his hitting streak to 13 games, is having one of his best seasons in years. He is hitting at a .345 clip with seven homers and 30 runs-batted-in.

Phillies 6 Giants 5

Glenn Wilson drove in two runs as Philadelphia took advantage of San Francisco's shoddy fielding. The Phillies scored three unearned runs off loser Atlee Hammaker, 0-4, in the fifth. The game was delayed by rain for an hour and six minutes after the first inning.

Cardinals 6 Braves 3

Rookie Vince Coleman's first major-league homer, a solo shot, helped St. Louis withstand Bob Horner's two homers en route to victory over Atlanta. Horner had a solo homer to start the second inning and a two-run blast in the sixth. His two home runs marked the 19th time in his career he has accomplished the feat.

Rogers not bitter

MONTREAL (CP) - Steve Rogers said Tuesday his ego was bruised but he wasn't embittered by the Montreal Expos' decision Monday to give him his unconditional release.

Rogers, the ace of the Montreal pitching staff for a decade, said the announcement caught him by surprise but 24 hours of reflection allowed him to get past the emotion and approach the news in the most positive light. "My ego was bruised, (but) I don't look at this as a completely negative thing," he told reporters at a news conference. "In fact it may be the best thing for me.

" I want to pitch, I feel I can still pitch and I have to prove something to myself and my teammates."
