

EART' PRINCE OF GEORGE

CONTINUED

rejuvenation on Saturday, the second annual Folkfest International Food Festival will begin in the 500 and 600 blocks of George Street. Activities including food booths, beer gardens and entertainment by various ethnic groups, will continue until Monday.

Other activities include organized games for children sponsored by Civic Properties and Recreation Commission, from 4 to 7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, the Moms and Kids Drop In Centre will host a Fun Fair for children, and there will be water play-ground activities at Four Seasons Pool.

The Towncenter Business Association will have a booth at Sixth Avenue and George Street. People receiving balloons from the association may receive a special gift in their balloon from downtown merchants.
