Writing to 'The Boss'

In the early 1940s, Raymond Massey starred in a movie about the life of Abraham Lincoln. What is the title of that film? — S.H., Oneonta, N.Y.

Massey received an Academy Award nomination for best actor for his role in the 1940 film "Abe Lincoln in Illinois."

What happened to Van Heflin? He played opposite Barbara Stanwyck and Kirk Douglas in the 1946 film "The Strange Love of Martha Ivers." — T.W., Morehead, Ky.

Four years earlier in 1942, Johnson won an Academy Award as best supporting actor for his role in "Johnny Eager." Heflin will also be remembered for his parts in "Shane" (1953), "Patterns" (1956) and "Airport" (1969). Heflin died in 1971 at the age of 61.

A few years ago, a miniseries titled "Backstairs at the White House" was aired. Is there any chance that it will be rebroadcast? — E.M., South Bend, Ind.

There's always a chance of this happening. The docudrama starred Olivia Cole, Tania Johnson, Leslie Uggams, Louis Gossett Jr. and a host of other stars. It originally aired on NBC from Jan. 29 to Feb. 19, 1979.
