10 CARDS OF THANKS

EYA LESLIE IS AT PEACE

Our sincere appreciation to everyone who offered their prayers for Eya Leslie during her illness, and their support for her family at the time of her death. Special thanks to the CWL for their contribution during and after the funeral, and to the residents of Dogpatch for their love and support.

The number of people offering condolences has demonstrated the extent and influence her life of unselfish kindness had on others.

Sincerely, Eileen, Jim, Bob, Ted, and families.

WE wish to express our sincere thanks to our relatives and many friends for the flowers, food and expressions of sympathy at the passing of my loving wife and our dear mother, Linda Herling. Your kindness and thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

Bob, Duane and Shelley

12 IN MEMORIAM

Martha Francis Tkachuk
May 9, 1937 - August 18, 1989

Dear God in Heaven please hear my prayer, You now have my darling in your tender care; On Aug. 18, 1989, you needed and angel, Oh Dear God why mine;

I needed her so Lord, to help me that day, I still don't know why, you took her from me; But now that you have her, in your tender care, Please tell her I love her, And wait for me there; I miss you so darling, each night in my prayer, I ask God to tell you, that a big part of me too, is with you up there; And so when God calls me darling, to be with you there,

I know that he will put me, in your tender care; I love you my darling, with all of my heart, So do your four daughters, and a son who captured your heart; A part of them is with you up there, So as the Lord calls us, to come meet you there, We know our Angel Martha, will welcome us there.

Forever in Our Hearts

Ray, Brenda, George, Clayton, Carmen, Chanen & Cheyne, Wendy, Jim, Adam & Jesse, Beverly, Ben & Breanne, Lisa & Randy, Curtis.

It's A Girl
BLAIR - Paul and Sydney (nee Taylor) announce the arrival of their daughter, Jordan Maria 9 lb 2 oz., born August 9 in Dawson Creek. First grandchild for Robin and Marilyn Taylor of Prince George. Eighth grandchild for Ron and Kathy Blair of Hope, B.C.

For Dave and Faye it's twenty-five. However did their love survive? Through all the miles, o'er city streets In postal vans, on postie' feets. Delivering parcels, cards and such, They somehow kept their love in touch. Through all the midnite postal trains And winters slips, and aches and sprains; Through all the many homeless kin, That through their kindness they took in. They gave them coffee, gave them bread, They gave them shelter and a bed. And yet their love went unaffected. In fact, it seems, it was perfected. And though Dave daily walks the streets (Of course he's doing postie' beats). You'll find him at the end of day Sitting 'cross the room from Faye; The Citizen slips to the floor As in his chair he starts to snore. And Faye will turn the TV on She won't suppress her king-sized yawn, She'll stretch out on her favorite couch You'd never guess she's such a slouch. Cuz' rest assured you'd never see Her yawning at the gallery. Their marriage is well-aged like wine, It's something so superbly fine. And yet we wonder if it's known Their love affair began by phone. Would you have guessed that young Faye's choice Was made by hearing Dave's sweet voice? It's true she was an operator And for her calls we won't negate her; But we wonder if they knew What all those phone calls add up to. Now, they've a home where folks drop by To sit and chat, to laugh or cry. To tell a
