TOURNIER - Our world has lost a unique and truly wonderful woman. Our family has lost a mother, wife, sister & daughter. Thoughtful, loving, intelligent and spirited, Joan Doreen Tournier left us the morning of November 14, 2000 due to an aneurysm rupture. Born March 4, 1935, Joan is survived by husband Len, children Brenda, Michelle (Ross) Hillman, Paul (Tammy) and Mark (Mindy), 1 granddaughter, 4 grandsons, mother Erylle Hallstrom and brothers Ron (Alice), Gordon (Eleanor) and Don (Diane) Hallstrom. Predeceased by father Eric Hallstrom. The service will be held at Immaculate Conception Church on Friday, November 17, 2000 at 1:30 pm. Gathering to follow at the Tournier home. In lieu of flowers, donations would be welcome in her name to the Prince George Regional Hospital. Heartfelt thanks go out to the compassionate nurses and aides that made Joan's last days here more meaningful for us all. The irreplaceable loss of her, for family and dear friends, is heaven's gain. She will remain forever in our hearts until we see her again.

In Loving Memory of Dorothy "Dot" Gladys HALE

Our loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt and friend has passed on to join her husband Wilson.

Family, friends, and pets meant everything to Mom and she spent many special moments with grandchildren, loved ones and her pets.

Mom loved the outdoors and will miss her frequent fishing trips with Mike and Inez Hryhoruk. No campfire was ever too big and the lake was never too rough when the fish were biting.

Mother, we will all miss you with your little smile and helping hand. Just being there was always good enough for you and you will always be there in our hearts and memories. We promise that we will all get enough to eat and that Fat Cat Will Get Food.

Love Barb, Keith, Gloria & Wendy

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of MIKE SKRYPNYK

A year ago today was when you found rest. Our Lord Jesus came and took one of his best. And he said, "Come with me Mike, to the place I've prepared for you." And you said, "Wait, wait, I've still unfinished business to do." You quietly cried and asked, Noella will you look after Mom if I were to go? Because now is the time and I have to know. All could see that you wanted to be in the land of no suffering, worries or pain. Where you could play cards with Lloyd or Roy, go to garage sale give aways, or be with other past family or friends. So I promised you to do my best to look after Mom. And you could continue your Heavenly journey in our time. We see you as another star on a moon lit night. Watching over us shining bright. Through the heavenly skies we call your eyes, you can see business is as usual! Mom's doing just fine. As always your step daughter Noella Gouchie
