AIR QUALITY

Highest hourly readings for TRS and SO2, and average PM reading, in 24 hours leading to 4 p.m. yesterday.

Area	PM	TRS	SO2
Downtown	14	0	0
College Hts	11	n/a	n/a
Lakewood	n/a	0	n/a
BCR Site	20	n/a	n/a

GOOD 0-25
FAIR 26-50
POOR 51-100
VERY POOR 100+

PM: Fine particulate matter. Includes fine dust and smoke and can contribute to respiratory diseases such as asthma, bronchitis, pneumonia and emphysema. Risk of these effects increases with numbers higher than the "good" range.

TRS: Total reduced sulphur. Produces a rotten egg smell at levels in the "fair" or "poor" categories and can cause respiratory effects at "very poor" levels.

SO2: Sulphur dioxide. Can damage vegetation at "fair" levels and levels in the "poor" range can cause discomfort from taste and odor. Respiratory health effects can occur at "very poor" levels.

Results provided by the Ministry of Water, Land and Air Protection. Current results can be obtained by calling the Air Quality Index Line at 565-6457. Air quality complaints can be registered anonymously by calling 565-4487.

ODDITIES

Mega win, times two

ATLANTA (AP) — A Georgia man's trip to a grocery store yielded not one, but two winning tickets for a $70 million US Mega Millions lottery jackpot.

The jackpot is good for a cash-option prize of $26.6 million before taxes, lottery officials said.

Stephen Cooke said he did not realize until he went to claim the prize that he had bought two sets of winning numbers for Tuesday's drawing.

"When I saw that one of my three tickets was a winner, I was in shock," said Cooke, who plans to use his winnings to buy a cabin on a lake and spend time fishing. "I didn't even think to check my other tickets."

The other Mega Millions ticket was purchased in Portage, Mich.

Had Cooke bought just one ticket, his gross winnings would have been about $11 million less.

The winning numbers were 2-5-17-21-22, with a Mega Ball number 43.

Little bit of birthday luck

THUNDER BAY, Ont. (CP) — A 22-year-old man sleeping on railway tracks after celebrating his birthday survived to see another one after a train rolled harmlessly over him early Wednesday morning.

"This lucky individual had been sleeping in the middle of the train track and was not injured," Thunder Bay Police spokesman Chris Adams said in a statement.

"The Thunder Bay man had just celebrated his birthday (on Tuesday)." It could have easily been his last.

Police responded to an emergency call shortly after 6:30 a.m. after officers were told a man had been run over by a train on the tracks near a swing bridge.

They later learned the train had indeed rolled over him, but did not make contact.

Police said the man was sent home to reflect on his near-tragic experience.
