Or maybe you couldn't speak clearly.
Or your vision was blurred. That's what it's like to live with multiple sclerosis, an unpredictable disease of the central nervous system. Things you take for granted can become impossible and you don't know when or where or if it will strike again. But the research and services programs of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada are providing some answers. With your help, we can connect with a cure.

TAKE NOTICE that on April 21, 2010 an order was made for service on you of a Writ of Summons and Statement of Claim issued from the Vancouver Registry of the Supreme Court of British Columbia in proceeding number S098121 by way of this advertisement.

In the proceeding, the Plaintiff claim(s) the following relief against you:

(a) Judgment in the amount of $36,649.70;
(b) Pre-judgment interest pursuant to the Leases, in the amount of the Interest Rate, from and after September 14, 2009;

(c) In the alternative, pre-judgment interest pursuant to the Court Order Interest Act; (d) Special costs or, in the alternative, costs;
and
(e) Such further and other relief as to this Honourable Court may seem just.

You must file a responding pleading/response to petition within the period required under the Supreme Court Civil Rules failing which further proceedings, including judgment, may be taken against you without notice to you.

You may obtain, from the Vancouver Registry, at 800 Smith Street, Vancouver, BC, a copy of the Writ of Summons and Statement of Claim and the order providing for service by this advertisement.
