Cindy grew up in Prince George, B.C. and moved to Calgary in 2006 to start new opportunities and be closer to her sister. She loved music, romance novels, poetry, Egyptology horror movies, forensics, animals, and her Mr. Bear who she seldom spent a night without in 18 years. It is the kind of person who you were that matters in the end, not what you did nor how long you lived. Cindy was an amazing person: intelligent, responsible, passionate, fun-loving, and lived to care for others in whatever way they needed. We will all miss you so much.

Cindy will be lovingly remembered by her mom, Andrea Eastham, her twin brother, David Eastham Jr. her big sister, Audrey Eastham and her father David Eastham Sr., aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless
