Boyfriend pushes sex

Dear Teen Talk:

My boyfriend and I really, really love each other. We are both in the 10th grade. I'm not ready to have sex, but he says if I don't he'll break up with me. He says it's no big deal and that I'm just being a baby about the whole thing. He is not a virgin and says that this is really important to him and that if I loved him I would do this for him. I don't want to lose him but I don't know what I should do.

Signed Not Sure

Dear Not Sure:

It sounds like you're feeling pressured to do something you're not ready to do. You say that your boyfriend really loves you, yet you also say that he will end the relationship if you don't have sex. What does this mean for you? As much as we would like to tell you what we think you should do this needs to be your decision, but we would like you to keep in mind: What would it be like for you if you get pregnant - What if you get an STD - What if he leaves you anyway? We admire your strength to stand up for what you believe in and encourage you to remember you're the one that has to live with your decision. If you require any further information or support call us at 564-8336.

TEENTALK
