Cyclist dies in collision with transport truck

Police have released the names of those involved in a fatal accident on Highway 97, near the Huble Farm exit,

Wednesday evening.

According to police, Barry Gale Solonas, 32, of Prince George was heading south on the highway on his bicycle just before 8 p.m. when he turned directly into the path of an oncoming truck.

More parolees sought by police

Prince George RCMP are asking for the public's help in locating two more parolees.

Sullvie Poole, 27, failed to report to his parole officer as he was required to do. He's a native male, approximately five feet seven inches tall weighing 160 pounds. He has tattoos on his arms.

Police warn Mr. Poole has a history of violence.

As well, police are on the lookout for Troy Michael Underhill, 28, who was last seen on the 3000 block of 10th Avenue at around five p.m. last Wednesday.

He's a caucasian male, approximately five feet eight inches in height and weighing roughly 175 pounds. He's has black hair and hazel-coloured eyes.

Police report he has a history of theft and fraud.
