

Money/Well donated

Chloe Mjolsness shows Don Klager, head of the United Way's fundraising campaign, some of the fun that can be had at the Moms and Kids Drop-in Centre on Strathcona. Mr. Klager was at the centre to accept a cheque for more than $7,000 from B.C. Hydro's Tony McGregor. And waiting to head down the slide is Chloe's sister, Stacey. The United Way campaign raised $528,620 to help the organization, which hands out money to numerous community groups. SHANE MILLS/FREE PRESS

You liked Canada Trust
because it wasn't a big bank.

Now it is.

Why put up with a big bank when it's easy to switch? Your local credit union can take care of all your financial needs. And give you the exemplary personal service you deserve. With over 330 branches around B.C., there's one right near you.

So if you're looking for a place where you'll feel at home, visit your local credit union.
