When a Senior Calls... We Respond
the United Way

Like many seniors, John felt isolated and alone. Now he is involved with a senior's centre funded by United Way.

Seniors deserve all the support we can give them. So do children, youth, families and people with disabilities. That's why United Way funds agencies and projects to respond to the special needs of our entire community. But this support depends entirely on your generosity. So please—make your donation today.

To give, please call your local United Way.
