Plant a Row
for the Hungry

WHAT to GROW.

The vegetables and fruits that food banks are most in need of are durable and delicious. Plant an extra row of beans, beets, broccoli, cauliflower, carrots, cabbage, corn, cucumbers, kohlrabi, lettuce, onions, peas, parsnips, spinach, sweet peppers, tomatoes, turnips, zucchini, potatoes and garlic. Add any extra fruit that you have and don't forget to include herbs and flowers. What a bounty for those most in need!
When harvested, the cleaned produce, can be delivered to a local food bank, soup kitchen or a friend in need.
