

STUDENT VIEWPOINTS: FESTIVAL OF COLORS HOLI

by : Jaspreet Singh

'Holi' comes from the word 'hola' which means sacrifice. And the festival is a reminder that we must live our lives in a spirit of service and sacrifice.

Holi symbolises victory of our higher aspirations over our lower, base desires. It is the burning of our petty, material desires at the altar of our goal of self-development. It stands for the victory of good over evil, a theme that runs through every Indian festival. For it is impossible that those who live their
