"This It's that time of the year again. That time when College of New Caledonia students partake in the democratic experience by voting their fellow students in for the various CNCSU Executive Committee positions that are available. ."

The campaigns and elections are sure to be an exciting experience full of surprises for both the voters and the candidates running for the CNCSU Executive Committee positions. Voting is crucial as these positions require filling.

In no particular order, the current electable positions include: Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer, Prince George Campus Representative, Quesnel Students' Representative, Aboriginal Students' Representative, Women Students' Representative, and International Students' Representative.

The Executive Committee positions make up the framework of the CNCSU and serve as the safety-nets which separate you, the student, from the vultures and villains who wish to make your social and financial life a living hell. For instance, the CNCSU is one of the reasons why the College of New Caledonia is one of the more affordable colleges in British Columbia. Plus, they give you contraceptives, a dental plan, and bus passes. If you ever have a problem, the CNCSU Executive Committee members will be here to help you address your concerns and remedy your problem as quickly and effectively as possible.

Do not let the CNCSU down by not voting, do not let fascism win.

From March 10th to March 16th, there were numerous candidates on campus campaigning for the vacant and contested positions. If you see a candidate on campus, introduce yourself and ask how they are going to fulfill their positions to the fullest if elected. I assure you that the candidates will be more than happy to answer your questions.

You can vote from March 17th to the 19th at the Gathering Place beside the fountain, TE centre and Quesnel campus.
