

Q: What is the importance of Diwali?

A: For us, Diwali is the Festival of Lights. In which we gather together and put lights on our houses. We also distribute gifts to our relative and we also eat sweets on that day.

Q: Do you feel like Diwali having a presence on campus is important?

A: It helps to make diverse cultures understand and know what our culture. It shows the importance of our festive.

Q: How do you think Diwali went?

A: It was really good. I got really good responses from the audience. I got some negative comments, such as the sound system and lack of a stage, but it will be improved in the future.

Q: Where do you think you guys will improve next year?

A: First of all, we are going to have a nice sound system. Afterwards, a nice stage with lights and it will look fancy.

Q: Is there anything you want to say to the performers?

A: The performers did a very good job. They looked very fancy and the performers are the people who make the event successful.

Q: How about the volunteers?

A: Without volunteers we can do nothing. They put lots of hard work to put the event together. We had lots of meetings and it turned out very well.
