

HEY DUDES- EDITORIAL

Hey folks! I hope you wonderful readers are all enjoying your summer; I know I am. As we approach the end of July, I have come to realize I have now been your News Editor for about three months, hot damn! I have learned so much more in these short months than I ever expected to. It turns out, the Student Union does so much more than provide the CNC population with The Confluence every two weeks (or so). As you can imagine, this took me by surprise. My presupposed idea of the Student Union, admittedly, was not held of very high regard. The reason simply being that I did not know what purpose the CNCSU served in the college. Let me tell you, my eyes have been opened wide. I have worked a fair amount of jobs in my days, and this is by far the most motivated team of people that I have ever seen. Every last person working in the CNCSU has big ideas and big plans to make it happen. I am constantly getting inspired by the passionate, and kind people that this little office holds, and I am reminded just how blessed I am to be a part of it.

Okay, sorry to get sappy there. In other news, the CNCSU has had campaigns going out the wazoo! My personal favourite this far has been Pizza Day. I wish every day could be Pizza Day. How awesome would that be?

Until next time, have a good couple weeks, y'all!
