Stay in The Loop: What's on the next issue?

Halloween is around the corner, so our next issue we will be doing the annual "Spooky Issue." Submit all things eery, weird, and Halloween themed. Whether it is poetry, ghost stories, haunting art or web design--- we want it all. Submit within the next week and potentially be published. Just as a reminder: you get $20 upon your work being published in the magazine.

With Emanuel Moldovan as our new Editor-in-Chief, he has a passion for video creation.

Though we have a couple ideas on the go, we are looking to you guys for answers. What would you want to see from us? It would likely be posted on our Confluence facebook page, and potentially YouTube as well. We want to provide you guys the content you are looking for.

Calendar schedule for future issues:

October 28th, 2019: Spooky Issue. Primarily Halloween-themed submissions.

November 8th, 2019: Diwali and International Issue. Primarily submissions from International students.

November 29th, 2019: Normal Issue. Submit as regular.
