

ALL IT TAKES IS COURAGE

By: Komalpreet Guru

Going in the dark
With that fear to fail
Courage is what it takes
To keep on walking the trail

Being in the water depths
Fully wet and oxygen less
Courage is what it takes
To look beautiful in the mess

When you lose it all
And you hit the bottom scale
Courage is what it takes
To climb that hill once again

Living in useless past
And ruining worthy today
Courage is what it takes
To see future in brighter way
